

ENERGYAUSTRALIA TELECOMMUNICATIONS FINANCIAL HARDSHIP POLICY

We are here to help.

We will work with you to help you respond to financial difficulty, whether temporarily or long-term. We are committed to helping customers facing financial hardship maintain telecommunications access and working with you to find a sustainable solution. Any help we can give will depend on your individual circumstances, and we provide help on a case by case basis.

At EnergyAustralia, we understand that from time-to-time our customers may experience financial hardship and need additional assistance and flexibility in order to pay us for their EnergyAustralia services.

These situations can exist both in the short and long term and may arise as a result of loss of employment, unexpected expenses, a sudden illness or incapacitation, the death of a family member, ongoing financial constraints or any other reasonable cause. Financial hardship is an inability to pay a bill as opposed to an unwillingness to do so.

This Telecommunications Financial Hardship Policy identifies and assists vulnerable customers in these situations to manage their telecommunications usage and costs. EnergyAustralia can provide payment options to assist you to stay connected.

Payment options can include flexible payment arrangements over an extended period of time.

Financial Hardship Assessment

We will assess an application for financial hardship assistance by considering your individual situation and financial circumstances. To make this assessment, we may need to ask you some questions about the nature of your financial situation, most recent contact and income details and the types of telecommunications services you need.

We will then work with you to develop a solution to help you stay connected and manage the payment of an outstanding or future EnergyAustralia bill or one that you are expecting in the near future.
