- (a) We may, from time to time, send an energy saving request (Energy Saving Request) to you via a series of SMS and email communications to:
- (i) alert you that an Energy Saving Event may take place;
 - (ii) activate an Energy Saving Event requesting you to reduce your electricity consumption; and

- (b) An Energy Saving Request will contain the following information:

- (c) We are not able to give you any guarantee about the number or frequency of Energy Saving Requests. We intend to only issue an Energy Saving Event:

You consent to receiving notifications which do not include an unsubscribe facility and acknowledge that we have informed you of the methods for opting out of individual events or the Energy Saving Reward Program more generally.

5. PAYMENTS TO CUSTOMER

- (a) You will be entitled to receive payments under this Contract as follows (Payments):
 - (ii) Event Participation Payments: a payment of $5.00 for each Energy Saving Event that you participate in (you will be deemed to have participated in an event if you do not opt out of that specific event via the opt out mechanisms available to you);
 - (iii) Energy Saving Payments calculated in accordance with the following procedure:
 - (A) First, we calculate what's called your historical usage based on your electricity usage. This is how much electricity you would use during the event window on a normal day (for example, assuming there are no extreme weather conditions). We are continually refining the method for calculating your historical usage, so this may change from time to time.
 - (B) Second, we multiply the historical usage by a variable that caters for specific factors, such as location and temperature, to give an estimate of how much electricity you would have used during the actual event period if you weren't taking part in the Energy Saving Event. This is your baseline.

For example: A family typically may use 5 kWh per 30 minute interval on a similar day to when a 4 hour Energy Saving Event takes place (historical usage = 5 kWh per 30 minute interval). This is taken and multiplied by a factor of 2 to adjust for forecasted higher temperatures during the Energy Saving Event to reflect that usage would typically be higher as a result. This gives a baseline of 10 kWh per 30 minute interval (5 kWh x 2) for the Energy Saving Event period.
 - (C) Third, we determine your actual electricity usage during the period of the Energy Saving Event (per 30 minute interval) on the basis of the electricity usage data obtained from your electricity meter.
 - (D) Finally, we calculate your Energy Saving Payment by multiplying the difference between your actual electricity usage and your baseline for each 30 minute interval within the period of the Energy Saving Event by the incentive amount of $2.00 per kWh (up to a maximum of $25.00 for the event).

For example: If, during the 4-hour Energy Saving Event, you reduce your electricity usage by 1.00 kWh for each of the 30 minute intervals within the 4 hours, you would receive $2.00 multiplied by the 1 kWh reduction for each of the 8 30 minute intervals.

1 kWh x 8 (each 30 minute interval) x $2 = $16.00

However, if you only reduced your electricity usage by 1 kWh in one 30 minute interval, your Energy Saving Payment will be $2.00.

- (ii) Feedback Payments: we may from time to time ask for your feedback, via a post-event survey or otherwise, and you will receive a payment of $5.00 for completing the survey and submitting it to us.
- (b) Where an Energy Saving Payment becomes payable to you in accordance with this Contract, EnergyAustralia will apply such amount as a credit against your electricity account within 15 Business Days. Such amount will then be deducted from the next invoice issued under your electricity retail contract with EnergyAustralia after the credit has been applied.
- (c) We may, subject to providing you prior written notice:
 - (i) vary or withdraw any of the Payments that may be payable to you under this Contract; or
 - (ii) vary the calculation methodology set out in this clause 5.
