

Standard Complaints and Dispute Resolution Policy and Procedure

EnergyAustralia
LIGHT THE WAY

Please read this document to find out more about EnergyAustralia's complaints handling policy and complaints management procedure.

Don't hesitate to call us if you have any questions.

Purpose

The purpose of the Complaints and Dispute Resolution Policy and Procedure is to:

- Protect and encourage customers the right to complain about their dealings with EnergyAustralia
- Ensure an accessible and reasonable complaints process is in place; and
- Provide mechanisms for resolution in a timely, efficient, and courteous manner

Our commitment to our customers

At EnergyAustralia we pride ourselves in ensuring our customers are happy with our products and services. However, there may be instances where a customer may want to provide us with feedback or lodge a complaint.

We recognise and value the right of every customer to be treated respectfully, fairly, and have their concerns heard and responded to in a timely manner.

We protect the personal information of our customers in accordance with the Australian Privacy Laws. You can view EnergyAustralia's privacy policy at energyaustralia.com.au/privacy.

Our dispute resolution process ensures maintaining this confidentiality and we will not disclose any personal information of the customer to third parties without permission except as and when permitted and required by the Privacy Act.

At EnergyAustralia, we also recognise that customer feedback is valuable in improving our systems, procedures, products, and services.

EnergyAustralia's Standard Complaint and Dispute Resolution Policy & Procedure has been developed in accordance with AS/NZS 10002:2014 - Guidelines for Complaint Management in Organizations.

How to make a complaint

EnergyAustralia customers reserve the right to make a complaint to EnergyAustralia directly by phone, post or online chat via the feedback form available on our website. Alternatively, a complaint can also be made through an external dispute resolution scheme should you not be happy with the resolution offered.

What happens after a complaint is made?

Our trained staff will handle each complaint impartially, empathetically, professionally, and in line with jurisdictional regulatory requirements where applicable.

We will acknowledge your complaint within 5 business days via your preferred communication channel. If not specified, we shall contact you by the same channel that you initially made the complaint.

Each complaint is recorded to help us perform periodical reviews and will assist us to improve our processes, products & services.

Customers will be kept informed on the progress of their complaint as we progress through investigation of the complaint.

Complaints will only be officially closed once the customer has expressed satisfaction in the outcomes provided or when all reasonable steps have been taken to try to resolve the issue to both the customer's and EnergyAustralia's satisfaction.

We will provide evidence of agreed actions that have been taken to resolve the initial issue.

EnergyAustralia has the right to cease interacting with a customer regarding their complaint should the customer engage with EnergyAustralia in an unreasonable or disrespectful manner.

What happens if the customer is dissatisfied with the internal dispute resolution process?

The customer has the right to escalate their concern to an external dispute resolution body at any time if the complaint is not resolved to their satisfaction.

The customer can lodge a complaint with Energy and Water Ombudsman scheme in the relevant state as listed below.
