

NSW Low Income Household Rebate

APPLICATION FORM - Residential Communities & Retirement Villages

Please use this application form if you live in a NSW residential community (caravan or mobile home park) or retirement village and receive a bill from your community/village operator for electricity use at your principal place of residence. Please complete all application sections, including your signature where required. The checklist will help with successfully completing this form.

To be eligible for this rebate you must live in a NSW residential community or retirement village, be separately billed by the community/village operator for electricity use at your principal place of residence – this does not include common areas – and hold one of the eligible concession cards listed below, provided by the Federal Department of Human Services or Department of Veterans' Affairs.

Please attach a copy of your latest electricity bill to this application form.
